Perfect

Topic & Ally Brooke

[Verse 1: Ally Brooke]
You're not trying to change me
Even though I'm crazy[Refrain: Ally Brooke]
When I talk too much then you take me home
Wearing no make-up think I'm beautiful
And when I'm all messed up, you let me be me[Chorus: Ally Brooke]
There's always gonna be somebody smarter
Someone prettier who works a litte harder
Someone that who ain't afraid to take it farther
And everytime I feel like I ain't really worth it
Then you say I'm perfect
I know there's always gonna be somebody better
Someone easier who's got it all together
And everytime I feel like I ain't really worth it
Then you say I'm perfect
[Post-Chorus: Ally Brooke]
Then you say I'm perfect
Then you say I'm perfect[Verse 2: Ally Brooke]
I know you never judge me
When I make it hard to love me[Refrain: Ally Brooke]
When I talk too much then you take me home
Wearing no make-up think I'm beautiful
And when I'm all messed up, you let me be me[Chorus: Ally Brooke]
There's always gonna be somebody smarter
Someone prettier who works a litte harder
Someone that who ain't afraid to take it farther
And everytime I feel like I ain't really worth it
Then you say I'm perfect
I know there's always gonna be somebody better
Someone easier who's got it all together
And everytime I feel like I ain't really worth it
Then you say I'm perfect
[Post-Chorus: Ally Brooke]
Then you say I'm perfect
Then you say I'm perfect
Then you say I'm perfect[Chorus: Ally Brooke]
There's always gonna be somebody smarter
Someone prettier who works a litte harder
Someone that who ain't afraid to take it farther
And everytime I feel like I ain't really worth it
Then you say I'm perfect
I know there's always gonna be somebody better

Someone easier who's got it all together
And everytime I feel like I ain't really worth it
Then you say I'm perfect[Post-Chorus: Ally Brooke]
Then you say I'm perfect
You say, you say, you say, you
Oh you say I'm perfect
Then you say I'm perfect
Ooh ooh
Then you say I'm perfect
