Naughty Boy, Calum Scott & Shenseea

Last night
We hit the ending for the last time
No more pretending, no I can't lie
I need you more than ever before
Yeah And yesterday
I told myself exactly what to say
But I'm lost for words when you got me face to face
I need you more than ever before
Yeah I can never undo what I did what I did to you
And I can never rewind every time that I hear the truth
I been taking it back to what we had
Don't know how to react, if I lose you
Lose me
You gotta let me undo
You gotta let me undo
You gotta let me undo
You gotta let me undo I can't believe
You got me questioning an answer machine
Another chance is all I'll ever need
And I swear that I'll forever be yours
Yeah Why you got caught all them lies you been telling I ain't with it
Every time you see a girl you try to hit
Gave you my love you never want it
Now you ah beg and call me for it
You was the man yes the only one me allow fi ah bump and grind inner it
Wanted time but you divide it
Gave me shit like I'm your toilet
Love did real but boy you spoil it
Now mi hot like water when you boil it
I can never undo what I did, what I did to you
And I can never rewind every time that I hear the truth
I been taking it back to what we had
Don't know how to react if I lose you
Yeah You gotta let me undo
You gotta let me undo
You gotta let me undo
You gotta let me undo Last night
We hit the ending for the last time
No more pretending no I can't lie
I need you more than ever before If I could turn back, turn back, turn back time
Oh I would turn back, turn back, turn back mine

If I could turn back, turn back, turn back time
I would turn mine back for you So hot, hot like fire
Body too great fi ah give it to a liar
True me too sexy
You a pose like domino
Think you ah player and a tek mi fi puppet show
Nah
It's too late for you to undo
Boy I'm done crying over you You gotta let me undo
You gotta let me undo
You gotta let me undo
You gotta let me undo
