Castle on the Hill

Ed Sheeran

When I was six years old, I broke my leg I was running from my brother and his friends And tasted the sweet perfume of the mountain grass I rolled down I was younger then, take me back to when IFound my heart and broke it here Made friends and lost them through the years And I've not seen the roaring fields in so long I know I've grown, but I can't wait to go homeI'm on my way Driving at 90 down those country lanes Singing to Tiny Dancer And I miss the way you make me feel, and it's real When we watched the sunset over the castle on the hill Fifteen years old and smoking hand-rolled cigarettes Running from the law through the backfields and Getting drunk with my friends Had my first kiss on a Friday night I don't reckon that I did it right, butI was younger then, take me back to when We found weekend jobs, when we got paid We'd buy cheap spirits and drink them straight Me and my friends have not thrown up in so long Oh, how we've grown, but I can't wait to go homeI'm on my way Driving at 90 down those country lanes Singing to Tiny Dancer And I miss the way you make me feel, and it's real When we watched the sunset over the castle on the hill Over the castle on the hill Over the castle on the hill One friend left to sell clothes One works down by the coast One had two kids, but lives alone One's brother overdosed One's already on his second wife One's just barely getting by, but These people raised me And I can't wait to go homeAnd I'm on my way I still remember these old country lanes When we did not know the answers And I miss the way you make me feel, and it's real When we watched the sunset over the castle on the hill Over the castle on the hill Over the castle on the hill
