No One Rocks Mine

Cole Swindell

I don't wanna ever wanna
Think about tomorrow morning
Girl, you know I gotta goDamn I hate?leaving?you
But it's what?I do
We could just stay awake
I?could sleep on the plane
Let me stand every last Minute left loving you
'Cause you know I doI'll keep your picture out there with me
But right now I'm still here, so
Come on and kiss me
'Cause I've seen Vegas in the bright lights
But it don't hold a candle to your green eyes
Felt the heat of the Georgia summer
Nothing like your skin under these covers, damn
I've heard the waves hit the West Coast
There ain't a thing out there that even comes close
I've been around this world a time or two
And no one rocks mine like youLaying here in this bed
With your head on my chest
Making sure you know that, baby
We gon' be alright
And holding on tight
Long as you're in my arms
I'll be cussing that alarm
Putting on my boots
And putting off another goodbye
Yeah, baby, goodbye
'Cause I've seen Vegas in the bright lights
But it don't hold a candle to your green eyes
Felt the heat of the Georgia summer
Nothing like your skin under these covers, damn
I've heard the waves hit the West Coast
There ain't a thing out there that even comes close
I've been around this world a time or two
And no one rocks mine like youOn a night like this I'll remember why
I'm all the time missing you
And I'm counting the miles and the places
And all them faces till I'm back to youI've seen Vegas in the bright lights
Well, it don't hold a candle to your green eyes
Felt the heat of the Georgia summer
But your skin under these covers, damn

I've heard the waves hit the West Coast
There ain't a thing out there that even comes close
I've been around this world a time or two
Yeah, I've been around this world a time or two
And no one rocks mine like youNo, no one
And no one rocks mine like you
