

Restless Heart

Praying Mantis

Time ticks with each heart beat,
Each moment taking me somewhere
I never thought would happen And all roads give a promise
To lead a better life somewhere
Then gone with sharp aggression There must be more to life than this
There must be another way
Instead of chasing endless rainbows No, I, I can't live with this restless heart
And I, I never meant it this way
Oh, no. Sometimes it feel like I have
Been here for thousand years or more
Dreams lay just beyond on my fingers
I'll reach and, I'll touch and I taste each moment as it comes
In my memory she lingers There must be more to life than this
There must be another way
Instead of chasing endless rainbows No, I, I can't live with this restless heart
And I, I never meant it this way
Oh, I, I can't live with this restless heart
It's no longer mine to give away, oh, no. Here in my heart I've had all the promises
And it's here in my heart that there's nothing to lose
Searching my dreams, looking for reason
Oh, so deep in my soul I am nobody's fool I know my place in time maybe forgotten
And the angels that I fear will stay with me
Time takes with each heart beat
Each moment taking me somewhere
I never thought would happen There must be another way
There must be more to life than this
Instead of chasing endless rainbows I, I can't live with this restless heart
And I, I never meant it this way
Oh, I, I can't live with this restless heart
It's no longer mine to give away, oh, no.
