

Round the Clock

Dan + Shay

oooohhh yeah mmm
wake up in the morning tshirt and coffee girl you already got me yeah midnight as a shinning black dress in the city baby you look so pretty you can make me wanna do anything you want me to tell me what you wanna do now you make it easy
you get my heart beating now on my chest and the rest doest matter you are the reason for the way that im feeling now nay, never gonna stop lovin you lovin you round the clock
starts when you walking and i cant stop starrng and aint what you wearing yeah now get so excite when i see your name on my phone saying baby im home alone oh girl you know i wanna do
cuz you make it easy
and the rest doesnt matter
