

Not a Dry Eye In the House

Meat Loaf

Not a dry eye in the house after love's curtain comes down
Listen and you'll hear the sound, hear the sound of a heart breaking
I can still see you standin' there, midnight wind blowin' through your hair
Remember kisses sweet in the salty air, when love was forever
Turn the page and we fade to blue
Scene has changed now I'm without you Well you just walked away when the act was through
And the dream was over
It was almost like a movie - the way you said goodbye
You must have spent a lot of time rehearsing each and every line
Now there's not a dry eye in the house, after love's curtain comes down Listen and you'll hear the sound, hear the sound of a heart breaking -
breaking
Not a smile left on my face, the ending's just too sad to take
And there's not a dry eye, not a dry eye in the house
The greatest story was you and me, had it all we had everything
But now the story's done, it's just history, the last act is over
Your every line had the sweetest sound
Your every touch turned my world around
But then the light came up and my world crashed down
End of show - it's over
It was almost like a movie, those nights we touched the stars
Time stood still for you and I
Now it's sad enough to make you cry
And there's not a dry eye in the house, after love's curtain comes down Listen and you'll hear the sound, hear the sound of a heart breaking -
And there's not a dry eye, not a dry eye in the house
Act One: The story's just begun
Act Two: I fell in love with you Act Three: Knew it was meant to be Act Four: You don't love me no more
And there's not a dry eye in the house, after love's curtain comes down Listen and you'll hear the sound, hear the sound of a heart breaking -
And there's not a dry eye, not a dry eye
Not a dry eye in the house, after love's curtain comes down Listen and you'll hear the sound, hear the sound of a heart breaking -
breaking

Not a dry eye in the house
Not a dry eye in the house
Not a dry eye in the house
