

White Lies

Paolo Nutini

There's a heart on the line, and it rests
with your eyes
Please don't fade and please don't cry,
'cause it's all white lies Take a chance watch it fall, grab too much
and lose it all Now I've lost my disguise, it was all white lies Stay here,
lie with me here,
oh lo-fi
lonely sighs
I will roam
lost but never alone,
hide with me
hide...Would it help if I tried, or has it sailed
and passed me by First love grows and then it dies, and it's all white lies Stay here,
lie here with me,
oh lo-fi,
lonely sighs
I will roam
lost but never alone,
hide with me,
hide with me
Now you move with the tide and I've heard you've found peace of mind And now I know that life's design moves around white lies White lies, white lies, white lies
