Earth, Wind & Fire

Jamie T

Queens in the pocket girl in a locket
Boys wanna knock it, other wanna rob it
I see when ya coming, girl, ya look stunning
Running for the friends of mineWell, it's more for the power and the hour after hour
Well, he's itching for the powder one timeWell, its' dear for the fire, hate for the liar

Living for the bass and beat Close to the wire, no one wanna hire

Didn't want a working weekWell, the ol' town crier looks for a buyer

Out there finding your feet

In dreams of schemes and drug filled friends

Will be fine for someone to meet

I own earth, wind and fire, it breeds the hunger

That keeps me on the road again

It's earth, wind and fire, I don't own thunder

It's owned by a love of mineWith a beat of the drum that made your head spun

See no, hear no, speak no, son

Look like a gun, held by the young

In a far gone land shooting everyoneFee, fee, fi-fi-fo-fo-fum

Is the package in the back becoming a problem

Fee, fee, fi-fi-fo-fo-fum

Is the habit that ya have still funCounting on ya losses, carrying crosses

Looking at your face in the dirt

Traveling buses, hiding from the rozzers

Pretending that you're an extrovert

Well, the girl you accosted and then took hostage

Escaped while you were at work

After three years, two days, paranoid drug haze

Couldn't stand to live a life of hurtI own earth, wind and fire, it breeds the hunger

That keeps me on the road again

It's earth, wind and fire, I don't own thunder

It's owned by a love of mineWith water, blood and wine

She temps me back time after time

But it's earth, wind and fire, I don't own thunder

It's owned by a love of mineSorrow, tomorrowEarth, wind and fire, it breeds the hunger

That keeps me on the road again

It's earth, wind and fire, I don't own thunder

It's owned by a love of mineWith water, blood and wine

She temps me back time after time

But it's earth, wind and fire, I don't own thunder

It's owned by a love of mine
