

Thought You Said (feat. Brandy)

Diddy

Take a good look at me
I done cried from the lies
It hurts so bad inside
If u need a thing ain't never had nothing to me break me down to the floor 'till I hide the pain
And to show you your girlfriend?...?
What you had me thinking you word was your bond (don't you know)
That your never gonna love if you knew it was a situation you knew you weren't ready for
I could see if your feelings had changed but damn you just slammed the door
You told me the one you said you would put down your whole life for
I can comprehaned?...?
How can you turn on me
(how can you how can you)
How can you purposely
(how can you how can you)() Brandy:
Lessoned learned house can burn were close to heat
Betcha words don't mean nothing to me
Thought you said thought you said that you loved me
Thought you said thought you said that you need me
Thought you said thought you said you complete me
Thought you said thought you said you were never gonna let it go
Thought you said thought you said wen you held me
Thought you said thought you said when'd you tell me
Thought you said no one else could replace me
Thought you said that your never gonna let it go
The times that you weren't there
The times that you left me here
The times that I needed you
You know my love is true
My passions inside for you
The nights that I cried for you
A man has these feelings too
Same shit that ch'all go thru
I been here before
Sometimes the pain you ignore
Until its right at your door
And then you just can't take no more
Why does love feel this way
Why does it hurt so badCan't even look me in the face
Why does love hurt this wayHow can you turn on me
(how can you how can you)
How can you purposely

(how can you how can you)() Brandy:
 Lessoned learned house can burn were close to heat
 Betcha words don't mean nothing to me
 Thought you said thought you said that you need me
 Thought you said thought you said you complete me
 Thought you said thought you said you were never gonna let it go
 Thought you said thought you said wen you held me
 Thought you said no one else could replace me
 Thought you said that your never gonna let it goThe heartache and pain
 Sometimes it goes to your brain
 Sometimes it makes you insane
 Sometimes our joy is our pain
 Cuz it tears u apart these affairs of the heart
 I think im strong but im not
 And when i look in ya eyes you know it kills me inside
 But I cant wait for that day that you come back to me girl
 After we both go away its just to see if its real Theres no denying the fact its meant to be
 If you let it go and then they come back.
 If this is our last dance we need to practice our steps,
 The situation I left behind but your hearts what I kept,
 You said I did you wrong you did me wrong we was both at fault
 And of course you lost me with your alibis and all of your talking
 And most important I just question my selfThe pain is taking over I can't believe
 (I need your hand)
 What happened then compared to now is dreams
 (I need your hand)
 And I know now that you'll - meI can't sleep, I cant breathe, I aint eat in days, stomach pains from arguing
 Didn't you cheat on me that's how the problems started
 And as far as im concerned we learned our lesson
 Well its all in the healing and that process has got me stressin
 Im so pressured i'm so physically drained
 I aint thinkin straight I loved you more than my own self
 Although I couldnt bear the pain of seein my old self Young wild uncontroled self
 I love you grl I dont need no one elseLessoned learned house can burn were close to heat
 Betcha words don't mean nothing to me
 Thought you said, you complete me
 Thought you said, you were never gonna let it goWhen I look in your eyes you know it kills me insideLesson learned
 House can burn
 We close to heat
 Bet your words don't mean nothing to meThese affairs of the heart I think I'm strong but I'm notThought you said thought you said that you love me

Thought you said thought you said that you need me Come back to me girl How can you how can you
Thought you said you complete me
Thought you said you were never gonna let it go]
