

What U Dyin' For

Angie Stone

[Intro]

Talk about it

Talk about it

It's a shame, yes a crazy crazy

Tell it to 'em Heard you thought about comitting suicide

Was it your pride that made you wanna die

Leave your momma, wonder why

And your baby here to cry

And was it over a jilted lover

Trusted brother, operating undercover

Make you turn your back on your God

Tell me what you cryin' for, let him go

He don't want you no more[1] - What you dyin' for, stupid

You'll never know

Cuz once yo' eyes are closed

That's all she wrote Hey hey, bro' man, with the masterplan, craving in pain

Doing all you can to win your prima-donna

Sexy brown, coochy down

Thought the love you had was iron clad

But here you caught chillin' at your homeboy's pad

And now you wanna put a bullet in your cap

Are you mad[2] - Tell me what you cryin' for

Let her go

She don't want you no more[Repeat 1]

Messin' with your mental, tearing out your central

Focusing on that kinda stuff that don't amount to anything

I'm pressing you to enter into an agenda

Altered state of mind

That allows you to control your pain Tell me what you crying for, let it go

He don't want you no more

Sugar, what you dying for (You'll see)

You'll never know

Cuz once your eyes are closed

That's all she wrote[3] - What you crying for

Let it go

She don't want you no more What you dyin' for stupid

You'll never know

Cuz once yo' eyes are closed

That's all she wrote Listen see[4] - Messin' with your mental, tearing out your central

Focusing on that kinda stuff that don't amount to anything

I'm pressing you to enter into a agenda

That state of mind

That allows you to control the pain[Repeat 4][Repeat 2]
[Repeat 2]
