

Dear You

Josh Auer

Here's a thought
Its all that we've got in d world
If we let it be
We're only as good as the fallAnd here's a note to say the words I couldn't say.Dear you,
I say that you're the only one for me
Say that I'm never going to leave
Dear you,
I see the future growing old again
Settle down with no other girl in the world.
Here's a thought
You're all that I've got in the world
If I let it be
I'm only as good as the fallDear you,
I say that you're the only one for me
Say that I'm never going to leave
Dear you,
I see the future growing old again
Settle down with no other girl in the world.Oooooooooo Aaaaaaaa
No other girl in the worldDear you,
I say that you're the only one for me
Say that I'm never going to leave
Dear you,
I see the future growing old again
Settle down with no other girl in the world.
Sincerely,
The one who gave his whole world for you
The one who gave his whole heart for youDear you,
I see the future growing old again
Settle down with no other girl in the world.
