Run up in that fuckin' building, kick down the door you all don't want no fuckin' problems wit' X you all don't wanna see them four-legged piece, wit' them collars on they necks
Wit' them niggas downstairs wit' the tech, you know the rest
Fuck it, blow it you all niggas, bitch I take respect
Dog's shit hot, that's why you all cowards froze me quick
I pop up, catch niggas on some cozy shit
With Chinese slippers and silk scarves on Nigga out here tryin' to get his bark on, wonder why the dog gone
I couldn't take it, deface it, that nigga make shit
That's somethin' that'll happen, nigga wanna brace it
And for the record, what you gonna do to fill up my spot?
I ain't gonna front, that? replace shit, was kinda hot

That's like tryna jack me for the streets! It ain't happenin'!(Swizz Beatz)
