

Kocaine Karolina

Elle King

Kocain Karolina down to your bones fireworks in your heart make it far from home every morning you wake up alone just the same who would wanna live longer anyway

oooooo

Easy days will come
When you rest your heavy soul

Easy days will come
When your hard living is done poke your skinny spirit to keep a man whats left of your flesh slipped from his hand lonely looking eyes have done you wrong dont waste a way until your gone

Easy days will come

Easy days will come

Easy days will come

Easy days will come

Kocaine Karoline
your down to your bones dont waste away until your gone
