

Rock Steady

All Saints

Years on the run,
Boy I know I can take it,
And now that I'm here,
I know you can't stand the waiting, boy,
Lets say no more games,
No messing with the mind,
Always room for change,
Let's give it one more try...
(Come on lets give it a try) I got my bags packed baby and I'm ready to go,
Look at my eyes rock steady and I promise you more,
I got My heart back baby and it's skipping a beat,
I got my ass in check, checkin' out, I'm ready to be and now I'm ready to be.
If you're good to go,
I'm right here for the taking,
(oooh take it, take it, take it)
Don't cross the line,
I'll promise you no fakin', boy,
(no no no no)
It's all understood,
No messing with the rules,
(the rules, the rules)
If I let you go, Boy I will be a fool...
(What kind of girl wants to be a fool?) I got my bags packed baby and I'm ready to go,
Look at my eyes rock steady and I promise you more,
I got My heart back baby and it's skipping a beat,
I got my ass in check, checkin' out, I'm ready to be, and now I'm ready to be.
Tell me why we act so stupid, the games we're playing,
(oooh)
Life is the cool when we're heading towards the same thing,
You are not worthless with love instead of the fighting,
(oooh)
Let's get together forever with no more hiding... I got my bags packed baby and I'm ready to go,
Look at my eyes rock steady and I promise you more,
I got My heart back baby and it's skipping a beat,
I got my ass in check, checkin' out, I'm ready to be, and now I'm ready to be I got my bags packed baby and I'm ready to go,
Look at my eyes rock steady and I promise you more,
I got My heart back baby and it's skipping a beat,
I got my ass in check, checkin' out, I'm ready to be, and now I'm ready to be
