

Perfect

Darius Rucker

You didn't see me walkin' in,
You're looking in the mirror and,
You look perfect,
Haven't put on your makeup yet
You're sayin' how your hair's a mess
But you looked perfect You don't see what I see when I look at you girl
You don't know how beautiful you are
You're never ready and you need more time
You say your jeans never fit you right
But your eyes and your shy little smile and your own kinda style
It's so perfect
I hear you singin' to the radio
Sometimes you miss a couple high notes
But it sounds perfect
And when we go out and Everywhere's too crowded
And we just end up drivin' around
It's, oh baby, it's still perfect
Just perfect No, you don't see what I see when I look at you girl
You don't know how beautiful you are
You're never ready and you need more time
You say your dress never fit you right
But your eyes and your shy little smile and your own special style
It's so perfect Your touch and your kiss and your skin and your lips
And your name
All the little imperfections you wish you could change
Yeah Every little everything
You don't see what I see when I look at you girl
You don't know how beautiful you are
You're never ready and you need more time
You say nothing ever fits you right
But your eyes and your shy little smile and your own kinda style
And Your touch
And your kiss and your skin
They all drive me wild
You're perfect
All so perfect
Perfect, Perfect
Oh you're perfect
