Bob Dylan

Nine Days

Bobby's in the basement making his movie
He paints a little picture but not to be cheesy
He wants this little girl to believe in him easy

Bristles to the canvas imagining he feels high, mmmInspiration of my heart search for light out of the dark

All the pictures in my heart lie awake there in my fog
This oasis in my arms I approach it with disarm

Though it might do me some harm stop to catch me if I fallBobby's in the basement making his music

He never won't stop though not to abuse it
If there's some other way that they only would use it
He lives another day but they always refuse itLacerations of my heart

Dropped down in pieces in the dark Mixed the words up on this page Makes the purple turn to beige

Inspiration of my heart search for light out of the dark All the pictures in my heart lie awake there in my fog

This oasis in my arms I approach it with disarm

Though it might do me some harm

So stop to catch me if I fallIt's just like Bob Dylan says...Stop depression of my own walk the only road I know

If I am only dreamin' then I am not that far from it Sow the strength that grows from seeds worship creativity If I am only dreamin' then me an' Bob are not that far today

So long as I'm young

Bobby's in the basement making his musicI search the beaches walk the sand

I cut my feet on broken glass

Strap the sandals on my feet

I'm run down but I still hit the street

Inspiration of my heart search for light out of the dark

All the pictures in my heart lie awake there in my fogIt's just like Bob Dylan says...Stop depression of my own walk the only road I know

If I am only dreamin' then I am not that far from it

Sow the strength that grows from seeds worship creativity

If I am only dreamin' then me an' Bob are not that far today

So long as I'm young

So long as I'm young, mmmBobby's in the basement making his movie

He paints a little picture but not to be cheesy

He wants this little girl to believe in him easy

Bristles to the canvas imagining he feels high, high

Inspiration of my heart

Desperation of my heart, mmm, mmm
