I'm in Love (feat. James Vincent McMorrow)

Kygo

I'm in love, I'm in love

I'm in love. I'm in love

I'm in love, I'm in love

I'm in love, I'm in loveI'm in love, I'm in love

I'm in love. I'm in love

Not enough, I see you waiting

Your hands up, your body's shaking

That hard look

I know you're faking

I know you lie, I seen you lying

With four months in front of me

And now we're same old enemies

It's cold blooded, come back to me

Come back to me

I know you couldn't stand to be here on your ownYou, you never last without someone to hold

Now you're crawling back, you forget what you are

Now you and your heart are nothing, your heart

You say you'd rather die, you got caught in a lie

Say you'd rather die when there's no one to blame

Now there's nothing left, you forget what you claim

Now you and your heart are nothing, your heart are nothing

I'm in love, I'm in love

Not enough, I see you waiting

Your hands up, your body's shakingThat hard look

I know you're faking

I know you lie, I seen you lying

With four months in front of me

And now we're same old enemies

It's cold blooded, come back to me

Come back to me

I know you couldn't stand to be here on your ownYou, you never last without someone to hold

Now you're crawling back, you forget what you are

Now you and your heart are nothing, your heart

You say you'd rather die, you got caught in a lie

Say you'd rather die when theres no one to blame
Now there's nothing left, you forget what you claim
Now you and your heart are nothing, your heart are nothing
Love, love, im in love, im in love, im, im in love
Love, love, im in love, im in love, im, im in love
Love, love, im in love, im in love, im, im in love
Love, love, im in love, im in love, im, im in love
