 Your eyes, they tell
 Ah-ah[English translation:]Why are my eyes filled with tears?
 Hey, stay by my side and laugh
 A future without you is a world without colour
 Filled with monochrome coldness
 Even the darkness is so beautifulI want you to believe me
 Only looking straight at you
 Not going anywhereWhatever is waiting for me in the future
 Look far into the distance
 The place you gave me is still
 Where my heart entrustsShadows of the past keep on chasing me
 But the more I try to escape and struggle, the more it follows me
 But I still want to hold onto it, wherever you are I'll find you and walk into the next day with youEven it seems to be the beginning of the end
 I'll call your name
 The gazing eyes are so colourful
 I will do everything I can
 Hide those unachievable dreams inside my heartTo face the past and the future
 It's nights like these that I keep on thinking
 How much hope is needed to reach you
 In the city at duskTo be loved, to love someone, I'll become your eye
 For the adventure that lies aheadEven the darkness is so beautiful
 I want you to believe me
 Only looking straight at you
 So you don't go anywhere
 The gazing eyes are so colourful
 You have taught me that Someday, the sadness will wind us togetherAh-ah-ah
 Your eyes, they tell
 Ah-ah-ah-ah
