

Could've Been (feat. Bryson Tiller)

H.E.R.

Please, allow me to show you something
Somebody give me
Yeah
Somebody give me, uh
Somebody tell me the answers
Me and you isn't the answer, uh
Me and you isn't
Maybe I'm telling myself that
But there ain't nothin' that'll change that
What good would it be
If I knew how you felt about me? (yeah)
It could've been right but I was wrong
Only think 'bout you when I'm alone
Part of me that cared just know it's gone
And I know, that I can't, get caught up
We could've been
And we tried to pretend
Every now and again
We don't dream about, don't think about what
We could've been
Though I'm holding again
'Cause I know in the end
You dream about, I think about what
We could've been
We could've been, yeah
We could've, damn
Remember?
Remember the night in Miami
First time you put your arms around me
I'm up reminiscing (ooh yeah)
Thinking about you isn't helping
Thinking about you doesn't tell me
What good it would do, if I decide to face the truth
It could've been right but I was wrong
Only think 'bout you when I'm alone
You only hit me up when she's not home
And that's why, I can't, get caught up
We could've been
And we tried to pretend
Every now and again
We don't dream about, don't think about what
We could've been
Though I'm holding again
'Cause I know in the end
You dream about, I think about what
We could've been
We could've been

We could've
We could've been
What we could've been, we could've beenAy
What we could've been
What we should've been
If I wasn't, if I wasn't-
With somebody, if you gotta hide it what's the point of trying?
I ain't just your friend, no, what's the point of lying?
Tryna sell a story ain't nobody buyin'
Look me in my eyes, don't that feel nice?
Why should it end?
Baby I could've been
I could've been him, more than your friend
Just say where and when, where to make a trip
Baby make a wish, be the one I'm with Should've been a-, should've, could've, would have been, ay
Yeah I would have been (damn)
Yeah I would have been (yeah)Damn, damn (could've been)
Yeah, we could've been (oh no)
