Don't Look Now (feat. Keri Hilson)

Far East Movement & Keri Hilson

Don't look nowI saw you dancing on that speaker box

Girl, what's your name?

I see you texting on that BBM

Can we exchange? I got two glasses at my table

Can I show you the way?

Tonight's the night to let it go, go

Girl, it's okayYeah, I'm not looking for no strings

You're not looking for a ring

If you're ready for this fling

Then meet me in the back

I never knew it'd be like this

Such an unexpected twist

Started off with just a kiss

I don't know how to actHey, uh, I know I promised you I'd take it slow

I know I swore on everything I own

But I can't resist, how's just one kiss?

But don't look nowYou've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone

Don't look now

You've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone

Don't look now

I can't resist, how's just one kiss?

Don't look nowMy heart is pumping

Like that bass before I pick you up

The way we stole each other's hearts

We playing stick 'em up

I take a shot of [Incomprehensible]

To get me in the zone now

She took a step out the door

From head to toe she's all wowI'm not looking for no strings

You're not looking for a ring

If you're ready for this fling

Then meet me in the backI never knew it'd be like this

Such an unexpected twist

Started off with just a kiss

I don't know how to actHey, uh, I know I promised you I'd take it slow

I know I swore on everything I own

But I can't resist, how's just one kiss?

But don't look nowYou've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone

Don't look now

You've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone

Don't look now

I can't resist, how's just one kiss?

Don't look nowThere's somethin' 'bout this girl She shakin' up my world She got me doin' things

I never did before Damn, there's somethin' 'bout this girl

She shakin' up my world

She got me out my zone

I'm losin' all controlThere's somethin' 'bout this girl

She shakin' up my world

She got me doin' things

I never did beforeThere's somethin' 'bout this girl

She shakin' up my world

She got me out my zone

I'm losin' all controlHey, uh, I know I promised you I'd take it slow

I know I swore on everything I own

But I can't resist, how's just one kiss?

But don't look nowYou've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone

Don't look now

You've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone
Don't look nowYou've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone
Don't look now

You've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone Don't look now
