

Paper or Plastic

Brooke Candy

Why do all the good girls have to die
Living in a bad girl's paradise Paper or plastic go spend your paper on plastic
Go buy a life that's fantastic cause all you are is your assets
Paper or plastic do you want paper or plastic
You can't buy love without passion
So please don't do nothing drastic Go live it up, they say age is a number, living proof of a theory
They keep getting older and dumber
Ignorance is competence then go ahead just bargain it
Selling out not buying it take it for a refund 10% Why do all the good girls have to die, na na na
Living in a bad girl's paradise, na na na
Halo's running there, halo's light it up
Feel the rush, now you're one of us
Halo's running there, halo's light it up
Feel the rush, now you're one of us
Paper or plastic go spend your paper on plastic
Go buy a life that's fantastic cause all you are is your assets
Paper or plastic do you want paper or plastic
You can't buy love without passion
So please don't do nothing drastic Time keeps on wasting but I'm too high to be wasted with all this yolo and rap shit
My heart is elastic Living for the days, living for the night
Living for the chance if we get what's right
You tell me who the hell you think I am
Think I am, think I am, think I am, think I am
Brooke Candy
Think I am, think I am, think I am, think I am Why do all the good girls have to die, na na na
Living in a bad girl's paradise, na na na
Halo's running there, halo's light it up
Feel the rush, now you're one of us
Halo's running there, halo's light it up
Feel the rush, now you're one of us
One of us, one of us, one of us, now you're one of us
One of us, one of us, one of us, now you're one of us
One of us, one of us Halo's running there, halo's light it up
Feel the rush, now you're one of us
Halo's running there, halo's light it up
Feel the rush, now you're one of us
