

the 1

blackbear

Getting over you, moving on, on, on Letting go of you, moving on, on, on Can't seem to find the reasons why you're mad at me
Should've held on while you had me So tell me why it is you're moving
All the way to Portland?
Tell me why it's so important?
I text you, you ignore it
It's useless and it's boring
I'm unhappy in my foreign
Wanna find a cliff and floor it
You left me laid out on the floor
I didn't know
(I didn't know)
You'd be the one, the one to ruin everything
You'd be the one, the one to ruin everything
You'd be the one, the one to ruin everything
The one to ruin, to ruin everything Let you win the fights, let you leave me, bye
Gonna bite my tongue when I know you're wrong
Can't seem to fight the demons
And it's sad to see
The one you once held on to Pack up and leave So tell me why it is you're moving
All the way to Portland?
Tell me why it's so important?
I text you, you ignore it
It's useless and it's boring
I'm unhappy in my foreign
Wanna find a cliff and floor it
You left me laid out on the floor
I didn't know
(I didn't know)
You'd be the one, the one to ruin everything
You'd be the one, the one to ruin everything
You'd be the one, the one to ruin everything
The one to ruin, to ruin everything
You'd be the one, the one to ruin everything
You'd be the one, the one to ruin everything
You'd be the one, the one to ruin everything
The one to ruin
You'd be the one, the one to ruin everything
You'd be the one, the one to ruin everything
You'd be the one, the one to ruin everything

The one to ruin, to ruin everything
