

Best I Can

American Authors, Seeb & Petey Martin

Some people promise you the fame and all the riches
But I promise I'll be by your side right there to listen
Some people promise you the world and all its glory
But I promise I'll be here whenever you get lonelyOooooooooooooo
Oh I saw oh I saw
The archangels they fell from the sky
They were falling right into your eyes
Oooooooooooooo
Oh I saw oh I saw
You were made from the holiest wineSo all I do is try, try to do my best
But nothing ever measures up to all the world expects
Cuz I'm not like a god, no I ain't heaven sent
All I am is human loving you the best I can
Loving you the best I can
Loving you the best I canSome people say that love is made with gold and roses
But when your heart is breaking I'll be there to hold it
Some people hide their devils deep inside their souls
With me you're safe and sound, let all your demons goOooooooooooooo
Oh I saw oh I saw
The archangels they fell from the sky
They were falling right into your eyes
Oooooooooooooo
Oh I saw oh I saw
You were made from the holiest wineSo all I do is try, try to do my best
But nothing ever measures up to all the world expects
Cuz I'm not like a god, no I ain't heaven sent
All I am is human loving you the best I can
Loving you the best I can
Loving you the best I can
Loving you the best I canCuz I'm not like a god, no I ain't heaven sent
All I am is human loving you the best I can
Loving you the best I can
Loving you the best I canCuz I'm not like a god, no I ain't heaven sent
All I am is human loving you the best I can
Loving you the best I can
