Tonight's the Night (feat. Tammy Lucas)

Blackstreet

You know baby

Tonight's the night(Tonight's the night)

I know Ive been promising you everything in the world

Tonight's the night, Tonight's the night

But tonight's the night, tonight's the night, tonight's the night

Me and you, me and you

Tonight's the nightYour understanding is what brought us this far

Never demanding although you gave your heart

You made it easy baby for me to reveal all the love i have inside

Just how I really feel

So many lovers

And yeah I've had big fun

But none of the others took my heart

My playing days are done cause im ready baby

I never been this sure

You are the one I adore im gonna love you more starting tonight

Let's make tonight the night(we make up)

Let's make tonight the night(baby let's fall in love again)

Let's make tonight the night(tonight's gonna be the night)

Let's make tonight the nightI have decided the moment that we met

You was invited baby

I could never let you get away

I'm so glad you're staying giving me all the love i need

Making me feel the heat

Boy, It's been my dream,

It's been my dream for you to love only me yeah

Everything I want

Everything I need

Can't you see it? Destiny

Oh, let's make it tonight

Let's make tonight the night(let's make up)

Let's make tonight the night(in the beginning)

Let's make tonight the night(all the deeper love yeah)

Let's make tonight the night(to every little thing i wanted baby baby)

Tonight's the night, tonight's the night

You're everything I want(everything I want)

Tonight's the night, tonight's the night

Cant you see it? Destiny

Oh yeah

Let's make tonight the night(tonight's the night baby)

Let's make tonight the night

Dance with you, yes I do

Let's make tonight the night
Let's make tonight the night
Tonight's the night, tonight's the night, tonight's the night, tonight's the night.
