

He Don't Love Me (Stripped)

Winona Oak

I met a boy who was so beautiful
I knew he was the one for me
Started with joy You know the usual, got drunk and said
Come home with me He was living for the dark
Bought me roses and took my heart
He was living for his art
Such a poet in the way he talked But he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't wake up in the night and want me by his side
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me, no
But he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't wake up in the night, want me by his side
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me, no But he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't wake up in the night, want me by his side
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me, no I saw him kiss somebody else
Though, he said I'm the only one
I couldn't fight those pretty lies
As long as he would stay with me
He was living for the dark
Bought me roses and took my heart
He was living for his art
Such a poet in the way he talked But he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't wake up in the night, want me by his side
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me, no But he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't wake up in the night, want me by his side
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me, no A pretty face
And empty scape
A perfect lie

A kiss goodbyeIt's all a game
Will stay the sameBut he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't wake up in the night, want me by his side
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me, noBut he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't wake up in the night, want me by his side
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me
No, he don't love me, no
