

Wherever You Go (feat. Juan Magán)

Jonas Blue & Jessie Reyez

I wasn't ready
No, I wasn't ready for this
But I found a home
When I laid my head down
My radio is your chest
I heard it beating and I started dancing to it
I know I was cynical, I was the one that said, "I wasn't ready for this" My white flag is waving
I'm yours for the taking
I took all my armor off, on, off, on, off
My love used to be tainted
Do you know you saved me?
I'm ready to say, yeah-eah
Oh-woah, you're the music in the dark
And you're the sound of my guitar
Wherever you go, I'll go wherever you go
You're the high that I was chasing
You're the song inside my head
Wherever you go, I'll go wherever you go
I'll go wherever you go I'd walk a million
A million miles for you
Up any mountain, down any valley
Swim any river for you
I'd jump on a spaceship
I'd write your name in the stars
Then go back to Earth and tell you to look up, diamonds from afar
My white flag is waving
I'm yours for the taking
I took all my armor off, on, off, on, off
My love used to be tainted
Do you know you saved me?
I'm ready to say, yeah-eah Oh-woah, you're the music in the dark
And you're the sound of my guitar
Wherever you go, I'll go wherever you go
You're the high that I was chasing
You're the song inside my head
Wherever you go, I'll go wherever you go It wasn't 'til I met you, that I understood the sky
And the way the moon waits for the sun, waits for the sun to rise
Wasn't 'til I met you, that I understood the sky
And the way the moon waits for the sun, waits for the sun to rise
It wasn't 'til I met you, that I understood the sky
And the way the moon waits for the sun, waits for the sun to rise
It wasn't 'til I met you

It wasn't 'til I met you
It wasn't 'til I met you Oh-woah, you're the music in the dark
And you're the sound of my guitar
Wherever you go, I'll go wherever you go
You're the high that I was chasing
You're the song inside my head
Wherever you go, I'll go wherever you go
