

Even If It Hurts (feat. Blood Orange)

Tei Shi

What did you expect from me
Or were you blind to see
Everything I laid out at your feet Break it down for me
Do you ever wake to fall and leap
A fee from you to me
Switches from my apathy I wanna wake up in the middle of the night with you
I'll put it all out on the table if you ask me to
And I don't tell you where to go and who to love, that ain't me (That ain't me)
All I want is honesty
Even if it hurts, baby
Even if it hurts, baby
Say you wanna come
Say you wanna stay
Say you wanna leave, baby
Tell me what you need, baby
I don't wanna feel crazy
Even if it hurts
Even if it hurts I just don't mind
I just don't mind
I just don't mind
I just don't mind
What is it you see, see, what you wanna keep
I've been on a high
I can never fight
Pretty from a scene
What do you believe
Skin and tease so, oh
What else do you know (I just don't mind) What did you expect from me
Or were you blind to see
Everything I laid out at your feet
Break it down for me
Do you ever wake to fall and leap
A fee from you to me
Switches from my apathy Even if it hurts, baby
Even if it hurts, baby
Say you wanna come
Say you wanna stay
Say you wanna leave, baby
Tell me what you need, baby
I don't wanna feel crazy
Even if it hurts
Even if it hurts I just don't mind

I just don't mind
I just don't mind
I just don't mind Come here boy
Even if it hurts, baby
Even if it hurts, baby (Even if it hurts)
Come here boy, got something to say
Even if it hurts
I don't wanna feel crazy
Even if it hurts
I just don't mind
Even if
Even if it
Even if it hurts
Even if it hurts
Even if it hurts
Even if it hurts
I just don't mind
I just don't mind
I just don't mind
