Daddy's Girl

Peter Cetera

When the sun goes down and it s getting late You say it s time for bed She just takes her time Acting like she never heard a word you said Little baby wanna hold you tight She don t ever wanna say good night She s a lover, she wanna be daddy s girl When the morning comes And it s time to go start another day She won t let you leave, and she does her best To try to make you stay Pretty baby gonna start to cry She don t ever wanna say good bye She s a lover, she wanna be daddy s girl She don t ever wanna be without you Never have to worry she won t doubt you Then she puts her head upon your shoulder Says she marry you when she get olderWhen the time has come, and she s old enough To be on her own She won t understand why you re feelin sad Cause she s leaving you all alone Little woman gonna make you cry You don t ever wanna say good bye She s a lady, she ll always be daddy s girlLittle woman gonna break your heart Gonna miss her when you re both apart She s a lady, but she ll always be daddy s girl She ll always be daddy s girl
