

Bombastic Love

Britney Spears

I am here to testify
That you're the only one I belong to
I don't know where to start
It turned into an art
Not to show the world that it was you
You made me realize
Not to compromise
The fact that you and I should be
I know we're gonna get (know we're gonna get) (get) Bombastic love
So fantastic
Where I'm completely yours and you are mine
And it's gonna be exactly like in a movie
When we fall in love for the first time
Don't know why I feel so insecure
I never understood what it's good for I gotta make sure that madness won't stop me again
I can't sit and wait anymore You made me realize
Not to compromise
The fact that you and I should meet
I know we're gonna get (know we're gonna get) (get) Bombastic love
So fantastic
Where I'm completely yours and you are mine
And it's gonna be exactly like in a movie
When we fall in love for the first time
It's gonna be bombastic love
Everything is gonna be alright
When I'm yours and you are mine
It's gonna be fantastic love
When I wake up everything is still the same and you don't even know my name... I know it's gonna be Bombastic love
So fantastic
Where I'm completely yours and you are mine
And it's gonna be exactly like in a movie
When we fall in love for the first time I know we're gonna get (know we're gonna get)
(get) Bombastic love
So fantastic
Where I'm completely yours and you are mine
And it's gonna be exactly like in a movie
When we fall in love for the first time
