

Not Everything's About You

Old Dominion

Yeah the song comes on and I sing out loud
And there ain't no road that I can't go down
And I don't think twice when I pass your house all the time
Yeah the rain just rolls right off my back
And I don't get caught in the same old traps
I can hear your name and fall asleep just fine
Yeah the world don't revolve around you
Not everything's about you Sunsets happening
My phone rings
I'm finally laughing
And doing things with my friends Drink to this
And drink to that
Let's roll that 8 ball in the rack
It's what I have, not what I had
Yeah the song comes on and I sing out loud
And there ain't no road that I can't go down
And I don't think twice when I pass your house all the time
Yeah the rain just rolls right off my back
And I don't get caught in the same old traps
I can hear your name and fall asleep just fine
Yeah the world don't revolve around you
Not everything's about you anymore She's got brown eyes
And her own place
Just last Friday
I picked her up and we went out Drink to this
And drink to that
I turned her on to Fleetwood Mac
It's what I have, not what I had
Yeah the song comes on and I sing out loud
And there ain't no road that I can't go down
And I don't think twice when I pass your house all the time
Yeah the rain just rolls right off my back
And I don't get caught in the same old traps
I can hear your name and fall asleep just fine
Yeah the world don't revolve around you
Not everything's about you anymore Yeah the song comes on and I sing out loud
And there ain't no road that I can't go down
And I don't think twice when I pass your house all the time
Yeah the rain just rolls right off my back
And I don't get caught in the same old traps
I can hear your name and fall asleep just fine
Yeah the city lights and the midnight stars

And too many drinks in a Downtown bar
Don't mess me up like they did before
Yeah the world don't revolve around you
Not everything's about you anymoreAnymore
Yeah, Yeah
Oh, Oh
