Maggie May

Rod Stewart

Wake up Maggie

I think I got something to say to you it's late September and I really should be back at school.

I know I keep you amused

but I feel I'm being usedoh

Maggie

I couldn't have tried anymore.

You led me away from home

just to save you from being alone.

You stole my heart and that's what really hurts.

The morning sun

when it's in your face

really shows your age

but that don't worry me none in my eyes you're everything.

I laughed at all of your jokesmy love you didn't need to coax

oh

Maggie

I couldn't have tried anymore.

You led me away from home

just to save you from being alone.

You stole my soul

that's a pain I can do without.

All I needed was a friend, to lend, a guiding hand but you turned into a lover

andMother

what a lover!

You wore me out.

All you did was wreck my bed and in the morning kick me in the head

οh

Maggie

I couldn't have tried anymore. You led me away from home

'cause you didn't want to be alone.

You stole my heartI couldn't leave you if I tried.

I suppose I could collect my books and get on back to school. Or steal my daddy's cue and make a living out of playing pool.

Or find myself a rock and roll band, that needs a helpin' hand.

Maggie

I wish I'd never seen your face. you made a first-class fool out of me but I'm as blind as a fool can be you stole my heart but I love you anyway. Maggie I wished I'd never seen your face I'll get on back home, one of these days
