

Ceasefire (feat. Becca Krueger & Eliason)

BEAUZ, Luke Anders & Ducka Shan

Becca

I know this is complicated
I know that we're both so confused
Too sober we fighting day after day
But we'll make up in the morning it'll all be okay
We'll be drinking and smoking high off each other
We're just pretending to hold it together

Duet

So I'm calling for a ceasefire
I wanna end this war
Now I'm calling for a ceasefire Cause I don't think that you love me anymore

Eliason

Just wanna talk without starting a war
To hold you and not walk away with a scar
Cause I can remember the mornings and nights
We could still speak without starting a fight
Now we're kicking in the kitchen Fighting out the front door
We battle it out in the bedroom Until we're lying on the floor

Duet

So I'm calling for a ceasefire
I wanna end this war
Now I'm calling for a ceasefire Cause I don't think that you love me anymore

Duet

So I'm calling for a ceasefire
I wanna end this war
Now I'm calling for a ceasefire Cause I don't think that you love me anymore
