I never thought the sun would shine my way,
All ive known were empty promises & pain,
I need a way out some type of escape,
So I take refuge in this place.(Omarion)
Even though the road to glory seems long,
The fire in me could win a marathon, Believing is nothing you cant over come.()
If you dream, then you can do anything
If you dream, your half way to destiny
If you dream, dream the impossible
If you dream, cuz dreams are unstoppable.(Toni Braxton and Faith Evans)
I could of gave up a long time ago,
No the doors I needed to get thru were always closed,
Storms & rain every were I go,
But I dont give up cuz I know.
(Tyrese and JoJo)
Even if they say you just cant win, believing, you can go where you've never been,
and you can fly high with the strength of all your friends.()
If you dream, then you can do anything
If you dream, your half way to destiny
If you dream, dream the impossible
If you dream, cuz dreams are unstoppable.(Tank)
