Him wan run left the cold fi ketch some island life
44 to 876, at the drop of a dime
Link up anytime
44 to 876, call the airline
Fly out anytime
I'm trying to free my mind, and live a life stress free
But the politics of this country are getting to me
I have a dream that I'm swimming in the Caribbean Sea
And then my good friend Shaggy says
"Come spend some time, family" I hear reggae music, that's playing in the street
With maximum bass at all frequencies
It shakes me to my soul with a positive vibration
I start dreaming of Jamaica and the Caribbean nation 44 to 876

And the ghost of Bob Marley, that haunts me to this day
There's a spiritual truth in the words of his song
And the Caribbean nation to which they belong 44 to 876 (Oh)
