

The Cherry Tree Carol

Joan Baez

When Joseph was an old man, an old man was he
He married Virgin Mary, the Queen of Galilee
He married Virgin Mary, the Queen of Galilee Joseph and Mary walked through an orchard green
There were cherries and berries, as thick as might be seen
There were cherries and berries, as thick as might be seen Mary said to Joseph, so meek and so mild:
Joseph, gather me some cherries, for I am with child Joseph, gather me some cherries, for I am with child Then Joseph flew in anger, in anger flew he Let the father of the baby gather cherries for thee!
Let the father of the baby gather cherries for thee! Then up spoke baby Jesus, from in Mary's womb:
Bend down the tallest branches, that my mother might have some
And bend down the tallest branches, it touched Mary's hand
Cried she: Oh look thou Joseph, I have cherries by command
Oh look thou Joseph, I have cherries by command
