

Overthink (feat. Eric Bellinger)

Big Boi

If I ever got a question about how it's supposed to be
I can't ask nobody nothin', really who know more than me?
Really who seen more than me? Really who make more than me?
I'm just overthinking now
They know who I am and they all got love for me
Can't be gasting for forever just caught up my energy
I'm just overthinking nowGoin' back and forth and back
Goin' back and forth the world
Conversations with myself
Overthinking is a drug
And I'm overdosing, train off the tracks, locomotion
My way, big, spans like the ocean
Peace, be still, ain't no commotion
Hocus pocus, watch them jokers
Keep my focus, 'til the locusts
Swarm, no harm done, torn
Calm in the middle of the storm
Bum in the eye of a sort of people
Of the gang, but don't stay neutral
Follow trends, now that's what you do
Jedi Master, way that voodoo
Here that new new
Cling on true too
Never fake, authenticate who fuck passed word
Hack the hackers, back to the two
But never backwards
Average bastards, and new dimensions
Middle classers losing pensions
Higher taxes, looser women
Lower learning, lose the children
Lose the feeling
Time to get it back, I think it's coming to me
I said, time to get it back, I think it's coming to meIf I ever got a question about how it's supposed to be
I can't ask nobody nothin', really who know more than me?
Really who seen more than me? Really who make more than me?
I'm just overthinking now
They know who I am and they all got love for me
Can't be gasting for forever just caught up my energy
I'm just overthinking nowGoin' back and forth and back
Goin' back and forth the world
Conversations with myself

Overthinking is a drug
Old school players to new school fools
But new school niggas play without no rules
It was true when I say that I don't lose
The crew been playing since tryin high school
Barbecue lit light in the cold
Tiptoein' through the two lips I'm swoll
Bone cold, sometimes thought
Wanna get 'em in Texas some bowls
Candy paint, swankin' swankin'
How these entertainers bangin'
Cut the grass, kill the snakes
Fuck the past, fulfill your fate
'Cause hate don't make the date or break
Them folk gon' think what they gon' think
Just float yo brain to show think tank
Attack like shark, don't take the bait
Octopuses steal the ink
Pop that pussy, kill the beat
Still the breed gon' hate ya
When this ball-point hit this paper
Boomeranging, 'cause I'm Tryna get it back, I think it's coming to me
I said, I'm tryna to get it back, I think it's coming to me
If I ever got a question about how it's supposed to be
I can't ask nobody nothin', really who know more than me?
Really who seen more than me? Really who make more than me?
I'm just overthinking now
They know who I am and they all got love for me
Can't be gasting for forever just caught up my energy
I'm just overthinking now Goin' back and forth and back
Goin' back and forth the world
Conversations with myself
Overthinking is a drug
