

Sensitivity

Meshell Ndegeocello

I know it's been hard since he went away
Left you so sad, you cry every day
Let me kiss your tears
Erase all your doubt
For you I'm here, you won't be without
Don't need a man that'll give you money
Come on let me show you just what you need, honey
Don't need a man that'll treat you funny
You need a man with sensitivity, a man like me
Someone who will love you
Someone who will need you
Someone who will treat you right, like me girl
Someone stable in your life
You need a man with sensitivity, a man like me
Hold on my darling
Don't let me down
Hold on my darling
You need a man with sensitivity, a man like me
Don't need a man that'll give you money
Come on let me show you just what you need, honey
Don't need a man that'll treat you funny
You need a man with sensitivity, a man like me
You need a man, not any man
Warm and sensitive, that's what I can give
You need a man, not any man
Warm and sensitive, that's what I can give
You need a man, not any man
Warm and sensitive, that's what I can give
You need a man with sensitivity, a man like me
Save a little love for me
Save a little love for me
Save a little love for me
