Walk On By

Melanie Fiona

Excuse me if I interrupt uh
So many things I gave up uh
Still I can't get what I want uh
You say it is all my fault uhWasted time equal years
To find out you never cared uh, but guess what You told on yourself uh guess what
And nobody else uhI'm gon' make it hell in your life, in your life
I'm gon' make sure things don't go right, yes i will Fool me once but you won't fool me twice
Don't say shh just walk on by, walk on by
So many days have gone by uh ha
Being here alone asking why uh
You can't be wrong and you're right uh
Think it's all good when you apologizeYou said that baby was yours uh ha
You never left her of course uh
You're gonna wish we never met oh
You're gonna get what's coming hey!I'm gon' make it hell in your life, hell in your life
I'm gon' make sure things don't go right, ain't goin' go right no no no
Fool me once but you won't fool me twice, hey
Don't say shh just walk on by
Don't say shh just walk on by
Don't say shh just walk on by
I'm goin' make it hell in your life, hell in your life
I'm goin' make sure things don't go right, things wont go right
Fool me once but you won't fool me twice
Don't say shh just walk on by
Don't say shh just walk on by
I'm gon' make it hell in your life, hell in your life
I'm gon' make sure things don't go right
Fool me once but you won't fool me twice
Fool me once but you won't fool me twice
Don't say shh just walk on by, walk on by I'm goin' make it hell in your life, walk on by I'm goin' make sure things don't go right
Fool me once but you won't fool me twice
Don't say shh just walk on byDon't say, just walk on by
