Million Dolla Baby

Robin Thicke

I lost my way, I did so much wrong
God, I need a friend to help me get along
I need my baby, gotta get her back
I need lady luck to get her from where I'm atGotta make it rain, million dolla baby

Make it rain, million dolla baby

Make it rain, million dolla baby

Luck be a lady, luck be a lady tonight lost my soul out on that road

Sat in the darkness, ain't leading me home

I need my baby, my lover, my muse

Hold onto me baby, don't let my hand go

Gotta make it rain, million dolla baby

Make it rain, million dolla baby

Make it rain, million dolla baby

Luck be a lady, luck be a lady tonightGot me singing, yeah, yeah, hooI'm hot at the tables, I'm seven-eleven

I'm playin' for hours, I'm bettin' on even

The waitress is rockin'

I need some more deuce please nowI'm doubling up, I have money to spend And I look at the dealer, thinking, "Should I hit?"

ok at the dealer, tilliking, Should I if

And I'm shaking my hands

And I could see you bet good now

Make it rain, million dolla baby

Make it rain, million dolla baby

Make it rain, million dolla baby

Luck be a lady, luck be a lady tonight

Lyrics provided by https://www.omusic.in/