

Sure Things

Sure Things

Written by: Josh Auer
Tonight Im standing on the edge of something right
Im banking on a feeling from inside
And I am here Hold tight the road ahead is sure to fog our sight
And leave us empty handed side by side
And I am here And Oh how they show
That sure things
Will surely come and go but I
Tonight is coming to an end and soon the light
Is rising over hills and valleys
And I am here Hold tight the grip of all the lonely hearts advice
But when they fall and crumble you will find
That I am here And oh how they show
That sure things
Will surely come and go but I
And oh how they show
That sure things
Will surely come and go but I
Yeah theyll surely come and go but I
