

Father

The Dear Hunter

...And what of the father?
Will he analyze?
And what about the mother?
Will she discover the truth behind this lie we're living? I knew that I kept this for a reason Now everything we never had
is here for us.
Now everything we never had
is here for us.
Don't worry about the Father.
You'll take care of him.
And as for the mother,
she always loved her son,
And you look like him.
