

Rockin' Horse

Sara Evans

The rocking horse came
From an old oak tree
Just missed the house
It was hit by lightning My daddy painted that horse
A midnight blue
Shooting stars
And silver horseshoes And it was something magic out of something frightening That's how I live my life
I take it as it comes, and I find the hidden love
When it's pouring down on me
In my mind I see the rocking horse inside the tree
A broken heart
Means deeper feelings
A thorn in the flesh
Means room for healing Oh salt in your tears
Can open your eyes
Wounded years
Make you realize It's just something magic out of something frightening That's how I live my life
I take it as it comes, and I find the hidden love
When it's pouring down on me
In my mind I see a rocking horse inside the tree Oo-oo, things aren't always as they seem Oo-oo, take the nightmare from my dreams
That's how I live my life
I take it as it comes, and I find the hidden love
When it's pouring down on me
In my mind I see the rocking horse inside the tree Oh, the tree
Yeah, the tree-ee-ee
Oh, the tree-ee-ee
