In Regards to Myself

Underoath

Wake up, wake up My God
This is not a test, and it's not too late to come clean
Get it off your chest

So steady your hand before your face and concentrate

There's got to be some stable ground left to walk onSo tear another page from the book

Are you asleep or just alone

Clear this room from your lungs

And pull yourself together

Pull yourself together man

Pull yourself together

Pull yourself together

On your back

You're sleeping in a bed of shame

Let the light breathe some new life into this room

It's what keeps you coming back

Made up of insatiable taste

Bury your head in your hands

And sink into yourselfJust what are you so afraid of

What are you so afraid of

You're staring truth in the face

So come on down

What are you so afraid of You're busy living now, aren't you

You're busy making vows

You're coming unglued

Time is shorter than you know

I know the light is blinding to the naked eye

So why don't you take steps away from being alone

I swear it's not too late for you

It's all worth reaching for

It's all worth reaching for

It's all worth reaching for

The hand to pull you out

It's all worth reaching for

The hand to pull you outWake up, wake up, wake up

And step outside your box

Wake up, wake up
