

Long Road To Hell

Avicii

Yeah, our story goes
He went down to the crossroads
He sat down and kept his eyes closed
Well, everyone has a price, child
And what it cost him
Why is it so? You think you're getting away
No escape from the deal you made
You walked right into his plan
Run as fast as you think you can
Back from wherever you came
Call the devil by any name
Oh no, now know who you'd played
Should have listened to what I'd said
What I'd said, what I'd said, yeah! I don't know if I'll be coming home again, home again
No, I don't know if I'll be coming home
It's a long road to hell without no soul
Just when you think you're getting away
No escape from the deal you made
You walked right into his plan
Run as fast as you think you can
Back from wherever you came
Call the devil by any name
Oh no, know now who you'd played
Should have listened to what I'd said
What I'd said, what I'd said, yeah!
'Cause you're dead and it's a hard road to hell without no soul
