

Mirror Man

Ella Henderson

When we began, you could be so shy
My buddy and you became a different guy
And so I thought your eyes were fixed on me
But now I know yourself is all you wanna see! MIRROR MAN, no one could love you better than a mirror can, no
MIRROR MAN, well I'll make it easy for you to understand
Yeaah, I think you're falling for you
So won't I tell ya the truth
You see perfection in your reflection
And troubles coming for you
MIRROR MAN, I wish I could love you better than a mirror can!
You would say that I'm your only one,
But I would tell you two walk before you run
And I was right and I realize it now, Guess I'm attracted to the kind that let me down! MIRROR MAN, no one could love you better than a mirror can, no
MIRROR MAN, well I'll make it easy for you to understand
Yeaah, I think you're falling for you
So won't I tell ya the truth,
You see perfection in your reflection
And troubles coming for you
'Cause I've been foolish by makes you the only guy
You can try to change, but already lost your way
Why don't you hear what I say?!!
Yeaah, I think you're falling for you
So won't I tell ya the truth
You see perfection in your reflection
And troubles coming for you
MIRROR MAN, I wish I could love you better than a mirror can!
