

Roses Are Free

Ween

Take a piece of tinsel and put it on the tree
Cut a slab of melon and pretend that you still love me
Carve out a pumpkin and rely on your destiny
Get in your car and cruise the land of the brave and free But don't forget to understand exactly what you put on the tree
Don't believe the florist when he tells you that the roses are free Take a wrinkled raisin and do with it what you will Push it into third if you know your gonna climb a hill
Eat plenty of lasagna till you know that you've had your fill Resist all the urges that make you wanna go out and kill
But don't forget to understand exactly what you put on the tree
Don't believe the florist when he tells you that the roses are free Yeah Throw the pumpkin at the tree
Unless you think that pumpkin holds your destiny
Cast it off into the sea
Bake that pie and eat it with me
Throw the pumpkin at the tree
Unless you think that pumpkin holds your destiny
Cast it off into the sea
Bake that pie and eat it with me

Lyrics provided by <https://www.omusic.in/>