

Village

Paul Weller

Here I am, ten stories high
Not a single cloud in my eye
Not a thing I'd change if I could
I'm happy here in my neighborhood And all the things I've never been, I've Never seen, I don't care much
And all the things I've never done, I've Never won, I don't care much I never knew what a world this was
'Til I looked in my heart
And saw myself for what I am
Found a whole world in my hands And all the things I'm supposed to be
And all the things that you want from me
I don't know why, I don't know why
I don't know why, I don't know why
I don't need all the things you got
I just wanna be who I want
I don't need all the things you hold
In high regard, they mean nothing at all And all the things I've never been, I've Never seen, I don't care much
And all the things I've never done, I've Never won, I don't care much This village is where I'm from It's one place that I call home
You wanna show me another side
But I've got heaven in my sights I never knew what a world this was
'Til I looked in my heart
And saw myself for what I am
Found a whole world in my hands
And all the things I've never been, I've
Never seen, I don't care much
And all the things I've never done, I've Never won, I don't
